

K-Love serves as one of the two radio stations that I listen to. And I think it would greatly effect the community by taking away a positive radio station when there not many in the Denver area. I beleive that people serving Christ and people who will come to know Christ needs K-Love for a positive alternative to secular stations!